

MISSING PAGE

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT MISSING PAGE(S):

Page 1-2

SECRET

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Thursday - 31 May 1962

Page 3

interest from them. I advised Mrs. Birtch that this was not my understanding, although we had indicated we would be pleased to brief Senator Dirksen if he indicated a personal interest and desired further information. I told Mrs. Birtch that I would discuss this with [] who had talked with Mr. Dutton. It was decided internally that I would talk to Jack Leahy in the I & L office in State, to see if he would drop by Dirksen's and Collier's offices and assure that no further information was desired, and then so inform Mr. Dutton. If this is not satisfactory to Leahy, Mr. Warner will write a note to Dutton on this.

25X1

9. [] Dropped by the office of Senator Norris Cotton and left with Miss Watterson a letter indicating the status of [] under our surplus personnel program. Miss Watterson was most appreciative and said she thought this would be quite satisfactory for the Senator's purposes.

25X1

10. [] At the request of Mr. Sherman Kent, obtained a copy of that portion of Senate Appropriations hearings on the DOD Appropriations Bill for 1957 in which Senator Ellender queried Lyle Garlock on the subject of inadequate intelligence. The published hearings indicate that most of the discussion on this subject was off the record. However, this material was of interest to Mr. Kent and satisfied his need.

15/
[]
Assistant Legislative Counsel

25X1

cc: Ex/Dir
DD/S
Colonel Grogan

SECRET